

Zakari Mustapha Muhammad

Zakari has 25 years' experience in commercial banking, with 12 years at senior management level in IT, Telecommunications, financial control, branch operations and customer service support. He has also had exposure in the management of Shipping and port terminal operations.

He is a specialist in Financial Analysis, business process re-engineering and transformation in banking, telecommunications and financial services industry as well as the shipping industry. His core competence is in general IT solutions for banks and core banking application software i.e. Temenos T24, Finnacle and Flexcube.

Zakari is currently a Project Director Africa for SOFGEN CONSULTING ZURICH. Over the past few years he has managed and successfully delivered several Financial Re-engineering, and Business process, telecommunications & IT transformation projects in the following high profile banks and institutions.

Rose through the ranks from Operational Supervisor in Kano branch to Deputy Financial controller and over the years acquired cocktail of experience from branch management, Credit appraisal/Admin, International Forex Operations and Treasury, IT solutions in banks and financial control and budgeting.